SUNDAY-SCHOOL INSTITUTE.

ond Day's Session-Interesting Addresses-Programme for To-Day. The second day's session of the Sunday hool Institute at the Congregational Church yes-day was occupied with a number of interesting addresses and talks. The afternoon session was opened with devotional exercises conducted by Rev. Mr. Grimko. Mrs. W. P. Crafts gave a normal ure on "The Conversion and Christian Culture of Little Children." She said that she had written to a number of teachers of infant classes throughout the country asking what was the primary object of infant-class instruction. The unanimous response had been that the object was: First, to bring the children to Christ, and second, to cultivate them in all Christian graces. The objection to children becoming members of the church is ridiculous. In her opinion, as soon as a child was old enough to sin then it was old was old enough to sin then it was old enough to be a Christian. She gave a list of the questions asked of children upon their admission to Surrey Chapel, London, as follows: "Do you love Jesus?" "Do you depend solely upon tim for salvation?" "Will you, by the help of Jesus, try to give up sinning every day?" "Do you stelve day by day to live more like Jesus?" "Do you stelve day by day to live more like Jesus?" In her opinion these questions were a sufficient test of the filmess of a child for church membership. In the discussion of the subject of "Bible Classes and Tenchers Meetings" gave a very interesting history of his Bible class and the methods he employed in teaching it. This class numbers between 2,950 and 2,259, and meets every Saturday afternoon in Tremont Temple, Boston. He conducts it in much the same manner as the moderator of a deliberative assumbly, and when a member wishes to speak he addresses the chair. He tries to get them to talk as much as is possible. The great difficulty that he had to contend with was the class of persons known as cranks, who have all sorts of notious and frequently interrupt him. His method is to suppress such persons as promptly as possible. In teaching his class he takes for granted that they all believe in the Bible and evangelical religion, and allows no remarks in opposition to either. Then there were certain questions in religion such as the second advent of Christ, which he did not allow to be discussed. He said that four or five years ago that miserable wretel. REV. DR. ### AMUSEMENTS.

ERV. DR. MEREDETH

The Opera and Magie-"Two Cavaliers" and Herrmann.

"Two Cavaliers; or, A Night in corrento," was presented for the first time in this quintry at the National Theatre by the Emma About Opera Company. The music is by Usigleo, and the opera has long been a favorite in Italy. I was adapted for the English stage by Mr. William satle, who has shown a fertility of resource and a felicity of dialogue and situation which is the result of his own long experience upon the a felicity of dialogue and situation which is the result of his own long experience upon the operatic stage. The plot is well worked up, as much so as the plot of any comic opera, and many of the situations are extremely laughable. The music is easy and graceful, many of the concerted numbers being exceedingly pleasing. The house that greeted the "Two Cavallers" was the best of the season, every seat being occupied, and the loud laughter and frequent applause testified how greatly the audience was pleased. Encores were frequent, and were not confined to the soloists, but the well-trained chorus received merited recalls. In the brief space allotted no critical analysis of the opera can be given. It may be predicted that the "Two Cavallers" will soon be one of the most successful of the reportoire of the Abbott Company. It was a success last night, and there were far fewer crudities than usually seen in first representations. Mr. Castle deserves decided credit for his adaptation of the opera, and he will no doubt reap abundant reward in its future success. The acting of himself and Mr. Stoddard—the two cavallers—was highly appreciated and both were encored in their solos. Miss Abbott as Maa gave some piquante acting and executed the music with more than ordinary excellence. Miss Maurel, as Doma Placeful, and trends and to the very effective bits of character acting. The matine which was postponed yesterday will be given this afternoon, when the "Bohemian Girl" will be given with Sig. Fabbrim as Thaddeus. To-night, "Olivette."

The Great Herrmann The entertainment to be offered to the ubile next week at the National Theatre will be ne of great merit. Herrmann is a most admirable prestidigitateur. He is neat and deft in his tricks. The materialist who believes only what he sees and refuses to believe what he cannot comprehend is forced into a corner by the perfection with which flerrmann deceives his sense of sight. There are many things to admire in Herrmann besides the mere percetion of his art. The manner in which he runs one trick into another, giving to some of his freaks the air of accident and emergency, is artful beyond praise. Though amply able to amuse an audicuce for an entire evening with the vast fund of clever tricks in his repertory, Herrmann varies his performance by presenting Kaisurshin, the Japanese juggler, and Mile. Addie. Indeed the whole outertainment will be bright, graceful, wonderful, and refued. ble prestidigitateur. He is neat and deft in his that another series of stock will soon be issued.

Interesting Meetings at Wesley Chapel

and Foundry Church. The delegates to the Women's National Christian Temperance Union remaining in the Christian Temperance Union remaining in the city held a parting meeting at Weeley Chapet yesterday morning. A very large number of ladies of the local temperance unions were present, and listened with rapt attention to the soul-stirring addresses made by Miss Willard, Mrs. Foster, Mrs. Thompson, and Mrs. Chaptin. Miss Ella Fort presided at the organ and the singing was led by Mrs. Buell. Very fervent prayers were offered up by both Mrs. Dr. Hibbard and Mrs. Henry, after which Mrs. Foster, a well-known lawyer of Iowa, made a touching appeal to those present to cour-ageously continue to do the work they had begun under such favorable suspices, and drew a life-like under such favorable auspices, and drew a life-like picture, of the terrible results of that greatest of all evilas—intemperance. Miss Williard then introduced Mother Thompson, whose foreible remarks, illustrating a long and broad experience, carried conviction to the hearts of all wise had the good fortune to hear them. Miss Willard said that at the next session of Congress the union would present a petition with one million signatures domanding a prohibitory amendment to the Constitution. During her remarks the speaker referred to the excessive use of ardent spiries in this city, and drew a pen-picture of the iocation of dram-shops and their contiguity to places of worship and educational institutions. Benediction was pronounced by Rev. B. Peyton Brown, after which the meeting was diamissed. Mrs. S. M. Henry, who remains in the city, will speak at three o'clock on Sunday at Lancoln Hall.

MERTING AT FOUNDRY CRURCH.

A largely-attended meeting was held in the evening at the vestry room of Foundry Church. Among the ladies present was Mrs. Judge Thompson, of Hillsborg, Ohio, the first crussder, who oecupied a seat upon the platform. Mrs. Clara L. Rooch, president of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union of the District of Columbia, presided. Upon the platform were also seated Mrs. Carlart, Mrs. Cleveland, Mrs. Tillion, and Mrs. Dr. Runion. After singing the hymn "Boek of Asse, Cleft for Me," Mrs. Dr. Runion, of Ohio, led in prayer, offering a fervent appeal for Divine assistance in their counsels. Mrs. Cleveland, president of the Dakoia Union, then read a short passage from the Scriptures. Mrs. Carland, president of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union of Iowa, who is an active worser among prisoners, was introduced as the first speaker, and stated some interesting facts concerning the broad field open for work in that direction for Christian women. femperance Union of Iowa, who is an active worser among prisoners, was introduced as the first speaker, and stated some interesting facts concerning the broad field open for work in that direction for Christian women. She compared the work of the temperance workers to the trial of Peter's faith by the Saviour, and said this work had not been sought, but came to them. Her remarks received close attention throughout. Mrs. Thompson was next introduced by the chair, who, in doing so, reveroutly alluded to the lady's allver-white hair and said that the venerable old lady might not be many years longer with her co-workers. Mrs. Thumpson, whose energetic manner of speech and gestore contrasts strongly with her aged appearance, good-humoredly contradicted that statement by saying that her sister was perhaps mistaken, as she came from a very long-lived family. She gave several instances of the effective results of the prayers and work done in the cause by her, and said that instead of growing weary she was constantly feeling younger. Her remarks frequently clicited laughter and applause, especially when she gave a humorous account of how they, at the beginning of the crasted at Hillsboro', had converted a saloon-keeper, bought him out, and tried to make a bonfire of his whisky, but it was too mean stuff to burn, and they had to put coul oil into it to start the bonfire. bought him out, and tried to make a bonfire of his whisky, but it was too mean stuff to burn, and they had to put coal oil into it to start the bonfire. She closed with a strong appeal to all young ladies present to join in the work. Mrs. Roach then addressed the audience, touchingly referring to instances that had but very recently come to her knowledge of suffering and heartache caused to loving wives and mothers by the dissipation of their husbands and sons, saying that she had lost one son, who was now in Heaven, but that she would rather know the remaining one was also in the grave than as a drunkard on earth. A number of ladies present signed the pleisge of membership before the close of the meeting.

The Capitol Hill Post-Office

The Capitol Hill postal station, established a month ago, was a gratifying success from the first. Nearly all the people east of the Capitol receive their mail from it. The amount of busi-ness done in money orders and registered letters is greater than was anticipated and is constantly ncreasing, and especially in this respect does the office save expense and trouble, as formerly to purchase an order or register a letter involved a journey to the central office. The accommodating gentleman in charge also issues orders and regis ters letters at any time from six a. m. to eight p. m., being both earlier and later than is done elsewhere, and this meets the convenience of a large class who would otherwise have to break in upon a day's work in order to send or receive money. All complaint as to the location of the office—corner of East Capitol and Third streets—less ceased. Mall is delivered by carriers four times each day—once as early as seven a, m. and as late as half-past two p. m. On Sunday the office is open from nine to ten a. m. and from six is "en p. m. Allogether the people of the Hill are proud of the new arrangement, and none of them would willingly reters letters at any time from six a. m. to eight p. m.

Temperance Fair. The grand fancy bazaar under the aus pices of Friendship Division, No. 14, Sons of Temperance, takes place at St. George's Hall, No. 510 Eleventh street northwest, on Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday evenings of next week. The ladies of the division are actively making prepara-tions for the fair, and it will prove an interesting social event. Among other things there are two badges, one of the order of the Sons of Jona-dab and the other for the Sons of badges, one of the order of the Sons of Jonadab and the other for the Sons of Temperance, to be voted to the most popular gentleman of each of these orders. These badges are of solid gold, and are of real value, saids from the compliment implied in their reception. Among the most prominent candidates for the Jonadab badge are Mr. W. H. Andrus, of Spertan Council, and Messrs, Mullen and Norton, of Pioneer Council, Those spoken of as the likely recipionis of the Sons of Temperance badge are Messrs, E. J. Whipple and Rud Engleston, of Equal Division; L. H. Juillau, M. C. Mitchell, and Joseph Thompson, of Priendship Division. The voting will be lively, as each of these gentlemen has a host of friends.

A Most Enjoyable Entertainment.
An informal meeting of the Indianians resident in the city was held at the residence of Colonel Fitzgerald, No. 1315 K street, last evening. There were about seventy-five persons present, and the generous hospitality of the gallant Colonel made all feel a true, warmheatted "Hoosier" welcome. It is intended to perfect arrangements for holding a series of social gatherings during the winter at the house of the various indignings living in series of social gatherings during the winter at the houses of the various Indianas living in Weshington. If the subsequent evenings are as enjoyable as the entertainment last night it may safely be predicted that no State association will hold its membership so closely together as will fraternal feeling and genuine good followship bind in one happy brotherhood the sons of Indiana. Among those present last evening were Commissioner of Pensions Dudley, General and Mrs. Crittenden, Judge and Mrs. Hayden, Mr. and Mrs. Crittenden, Judge and Mrs. Hayden, Mr. and Mrs. Erank Heaton, Colonel and Mrs. It. P. Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Dudon, Colonel Meacham, Messrs, Morrison, Brown, C. H. Dickson, and E. M. Hardy.

A Spiritualistic Reception. lered Colonel Thomas Forster Gayles, at the resilence of Mr. Samuel G. Cabell, on Capitol hill, last night, by his many friends in this city. Charles Case opened the meeting and form-ally presented Colonel Gales, who briefly outlined a series of lectures to be delivered by him on Sunday evenings ciation has ever been formed in this District that another series of stock will soon be issued.

THE PERPETUAL ASSOCIATION.

The Perpetual Building Association held its first monthly meeting last evening at 615 Seventh street northwest. The meeting was large, and shares were in great demand. The secretary sold $2,550. Shares of $500 went at an average discount of $2,550. leaving the borrower $170.40, for which he pays $1 per monto or 7 per cent, interest per annum. At this rate the borrower gets $1,028 for a total payment of $12 per month. This association bids hair to be very successful, and an "overflow meeting" about the 18th instant is probable.

A LIVELY ROW. Two Drunken Men Make a First-Cines

Yesterday morning two brothers, George and James Kagle, came into the city from Prince George's County with a load of produce, and after disposing of their warrs proceeded to have a little Yorktown celebration on their own book. After putting away a lot of bad whisky, they reached the actions attracted the attention of Lieutemut Austla, who arrested one of them, when he was violently assaulted by the other, and would have been weested but for the limely arrival of Sergeaut Broman and Officer Prather, who were compelled to call upon the bystanders for assistance. Bergeaut Broman called upon a colored man, Walter Carter, who refused to add him. He was put under arrest and placed in charge of John Crogan, a clitzen, upon whom he made an assault with an oyster knife and excaped. The route to the Seventh Precinct Station was the scene of a continuous struggle on the part of the prisoners, who offered a most desporate resistance and left the pavement strewn with remnants of their clothing. After locking up the prisoners Sergeaut Broman went out to look for Carter, whom he found in a vacant lot at the corner of D street and New Jersey avonue. As soon as apprehended he showed fight, and would have made things lively but for the intervention of Sergeaut Hollinberger, with whose help he was locked up. The trio will pay their respects to Judge Snell this morning.

DIREZIONE IN STATISTICA.

ROME, AUG. 31, 1881.

M. Bodio presents to his colleague, Mr. Jo-eph Nimmo, chief of Burean of Statistics (Treasury Department), Dr. Egerto Rossi, secretary of M. Alexandre Rossi, senator of the kingdom, and one of the most powerful and well-designing men of Italy. Dr. Egerto Rossi comes there to study carefully on the place the results of the American commercial policy. The undersigned will be very grateful to his colleague if he will bein M. Rossi in this. Respectfully, LUIGIO BODIO.

It is anticipated that Dr. Rossi will make an ex-It is anticipated that Dr. Rossi will make an extended stay in Washington, during which he will be afforded an opportunity to study our system of statistics, and the general effect of our tariff upon our commercial relations with the rest of the

The funeral of Mrs. Virginia Lee Graham, wife of Commander J. D. Graham, U. S. N. who died last Sunday night, took place yesterday afternoon, from the residence of her mother, Mrs. George H. Plant, corner of Sixth and I streets northvest, and proceeded to St. Matthew's Church west, and proceeded to St. Matthew's Church, where the funeral services were performed by Father Boyle. The attendance was very large, and comprised quite a number of army and navy officers and their families. The funeral arrangements were in charge of Mr. William B. Speare, and the interment was in the Graham family lot in the Congressional Cemetery. Decessed will be remembered as Miss Jennie Lee, of Sixth street northwest, a former pupil and graduate of the Visitation Academy in this city.

THE unprecedented demand for Dr. Bull's Cough yrup has had the effect of bringing out numerous
